

New pilots are ready to take off

RIVERINA MP

Michael McCormack has congratulated the latest batch of cadet pilots to graduate from Wagga's Regional Express (Rex) pilot school.

The newly accredited pilots graduated at a ceremony held at Wagga airport on Friday and Mr McCormack heralded the program's success. Since the pilot academy opened in 2007, 106 cadets have been trained for work as a commercial pilot by the airline.