

Rex to add more beds at academy

REGIONAL Express Airlines (Rex) will spend $4 million on doubling accommodation for its Australian Airline Pilot Academy at Wagga's Forest Hill airport.

A development application has been lodged with Wagga City Council to expand accommodation from 100 beds to 200 beds.

The academy was officially opened only on May 27, but its success and growing demand has prompted the airline to already plan for expansion.